THE G2 GALLERY:

Supporting art and the environment by showcasing the world's most celebrated nature and wildlife photographers and donating 100% of the proceeds to environmental charities.

Since opening our doors in March 2008, The G2 Gallery has been committed to promoting the appreciation and conservation of our natural environment through photography and other art forms. G2 presents an illuminating range of exhibits that showcase nature and wildlife photography by artists who inform, inspire and generate greater awareness of the environmental issues we face.
