

BECOME A TEACHER ONLINE

coLanguage is pioneering Online Language Learning. Our European based eLearning platform has the aim to help people to learn foreign languages, to find a job in a foreign country or just to talk to native speakers to improve the language skills. The success factor of coLanguage is the combination of online lessons combined with 1-on-1 live classes and group trainings.

Every teacher is an important part of our team. Bring in creativity as well as implement new initiatives within a nurturing environment. coLanguage is a product that is of high value in the life of people and changes the way we will learn in the future fundamentally.

We are looking for people who are willing to teach Polish or any other foreign languages.

Your tasks

- Give live classes via video chat or Skype
- Build your own profile and brand on coLanguage
- Market your course to have more enrolled students
- (Optional) create high-quality course materials like, learning videos, explanation material, exercises, ...

Your profile

- You are a registered student or graduate of the department of linguistics, education, pedagogy, foreign languages or equivalent
- Enthusiasm for eLearning and language teaching
- First experiences in language teaching
- Perfect language skills in speech and writing

What we offer you

- Teach from any location in the world
- Opportunity to meet a wide range of students
- 100% flexible schedule

Application and salary

- Period: as soon as possible
- Working hours: teach as much students as you can handle
- Compensation: depending on your qualifications

If you are interested send us a brief motivation letter and your CV to lektorzy@colanguage.com. We look forward to receive your application.

<https://www.colanguage.com/become-teacher>

