Your challenge

Your main role is to support the international programs and advocacy team of dance4life. dance4life implements the dance4life concept in 18 countries, together with our local partners, which we call National Concept Owners (NCOs). Besides this we do international advocacy, together with a group of young people from 7 countries, called the ChangeMakers.

Your role

- Supporting our international advocacy officer in the ChangeMakers project
- Analysing UN reports, researches, literature; making summaries for the team and updating factsheets around young people and Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights
- Setting up a system for documenting personal stories
- Creation of a database with content for advocacy purposes; UN reports and resolutions
- Support in creating tools/manuals
- Developing context analyses for specific countries
- Support in communication with our NCOs, for example through our NCO newsletter
- Assistance in collecting and aggregating monitoring data from our NCOs
- Support in organising meetings such as our international meeting for our NCOs
- Support the business development unit with research for country cases and lead opportunities

Your profile

- You have good co-ordination, communication and organisational skills
- You are analytic and critical
- You have excellent communication skills in English
- You are a flexible team player with a positive and motivating attitude
- You have affinity with our target group (10-24) and preferably your own age is not above 26
- You support and believe in the work of dance4life
- You are looking for an internship related to your current Master in a relevant area such as international development

What we offer

- An internship in an exciting and dynamic organization for around 6 months, at least 32 hours a week, starting January 2016
- A remuneration for the internship of €250 per month
- Bio lunches in the office canteen
- An informal working space in the heart of Amsterdam

The organization

dance4life is an international organization based in Amsterdam. dance4life empowers young people to make safe sexual choices and bring an end to AIDS, unplanned pregnancies and sexual violence. More information: www.dance4life.com
