

New Perspective on Employability

4-12 September 2016

Dobrá Voda, Slovakia

"New Perspective on Employability" is practical training course for youth workers, teachers, social workers and people who work with young people who want to learn, develop their skills and increase their chances on the labour market. The training explores the theme of employability. The aim is to strengthen and expand the capacity of youth workers and youth leaders in supporting young people, their entrepreneurship and employability.

Description:

The program will develop skills needed in order to support young people and their entrepreneurial spirit. Participants will have the opportunity to experience work on a project and also being supported by coaching methods. Participants will also practice coaching to support others.

We will work on all important employability skills through experiential exercises. And we will experience it all in meeting with local community.

New Perspective on Employability is designed for people who are ready to learn, explore, discover and develop their skills and will be able to use it later in their jobs and communities.

People, countries

We will host 30 participants from 13 countries and 15 partner organisations: Bulgaria (2), Croatia (2), Cyprus (2), Estonia (2), Greece (2), Italy (4), Lithuania (2), Macedonia (2), Poland (2), Romania (2), Slovakia (2), Spain (4), Turkey (2).

Objectives

- To name and explore competencies necessary for young people to be successful on the labour market and develop the competencies
- To try out these competencies through their own projects and have the support from the team and feedback on their work
- To provide coaching tools to support young unemployed people in order for participants to use them in their work
- To reflect on their own role as a youth worker and the role of youth organizations to support young people and their employability
- To develop entrepreneurship of participants by creating their own projects and thought coaching methods
- To encourage new forms of cooperation between sectors, to interconnect them and to ensure exchange of experiences and create a network with common activities
- To be able to share experiences, exchange ideas and best practice and to establish quality partnerships with colleagues from other European countries
